Papers of the Olomouc Conference on Physical Planning and Building Regulations

The last issue of Urban Planning and Spatial Development has brought a brief summary of the Conference on Physical Planning and Building Regulations, held in the end of May in Olomouc. We are now getting back to the conference papers, publishing a few unabridged contributions, as revised at editors' request by the speakers and sent in by the closing date of this issue of UP&SD. Here-with an overview of these articles:

Martin Tunka, Physical Planning and the Spatial Development Policy

Josef Markvart, Principles of Sustainable Spatial Development

Petr Bílek, Physical Planning Activities of the Czech Chamber of Architects

Karel Havlíček, The European Interreg Initiatives

Blažena Křížová, Tourism Development Concepts in the Context of Physical Planning

Jana Matějková, The Relation Between Physical Planning and Land Reallotment, as Carried out According to the 284/1991 Act of Outdoor Formations and Land Offices

Miriam Přinosilová, HABITAT; UN General Assembly Session - Istanbul +5

Like in previous issues of Urban Planning and Spatial Development, the reader is informed about the current activities of HABITAT, mainly about Istanbul +5, a special UN General Assembly session under preparation.
